Uncle Cloyd, Your wisdom still reigns in my heart today. I remember hunting at your place a LONG time ago. Being young and energetic, I used my energy and not my brains. I ran all over the country side trying to chase down the target. You later told me that patience was far more effective, than energy. And that if I would just wait until the time is right, it would be much easier, and far more effective. I could try running to and fro, or I could be patient and wait. As I got older, I realized that that patience could be applied to all aspects of my life. Thanks for the wisdom! You will be missed here, but someday we will rejoice together with our Lord and Savior.

Cloyd (and Winnie) were regular faithful members when I pastored in Claude. Cloyd was a great deacon with a great faith. He and Winnie were as steady and stable as they come. We will be unable to attend the services, but will be praying for Ken and Patsy and all the family. Our sympathies and prayers, Jim and Diana Brown
