Sorry about the loss of your loved one. We can look forward very soon to the time when we will experience the wonderful promise from God when by means of his Son the resurrection hope will be a reality, John 5:28,29. Also we will be blessed with the great joys of Revelations 21:3,4 when death will be no more! Also I invite all the family and friends to experience the comfort of exploring the answer to some of life's most important questions found at jw.org.
