I learned of Gary's death this afternoon while reading of Ida's passing. My condolences and my prayers are with you during this time. Gary, through his work with El Paso, was a customer of mine. During that time, he came across a litter of pups in a ditch near East Main in Farmington. Someone had abandoned the litter shortly after their birth. He found homes for each pup and approached me, at work, about the last - a male. He wasn't going to quit until he had placed the entire litter. We took that last pup and had him until we moved from Farmington. He was then given to friends who lived in the country - much better for a large dog than our intown fenced backyard. We always said that our dog was half German Shepherd and half from a good neighborhood. When we received that tiny pup, he was smaller than our good friend's Pomeranian. The first week, the Pomeranian had a smaller dog to play with and really took charge. The following week, our pup had grown enough that they were able to play well together. The third get-together made it obvious that our pup was too large and strong to ever play with the Pomeranian again. Thanks to Gary Gandy, I have been able to relate that story several times over the years.

My sympathy's to Aunt Ida, Gay Lynn, Brent, Troy, and all the family. I saw Uncle Gary far less than I would have liked to, once or twice a year mostly at family gatherings. The conversations that we had were almost always enjoyable (except politics) his combination of wit and wisdom was always a highlight in our talks. Uncle Gary will always hold a special place in my hart and memories. He gave me my first real gun. (Much to my mother's objection) He gave me my first beer (much to my mother's objection) I was 18 and it was a Pearl that tells how long ago it was. He will be missed but always remembered. Kip

So sorry we can not be there with you my dear family but I love each of you. Have so many sweet memories of Gary. One of last nice thing he and Ida did was to send Robert a book about some of his ancestor. I always enjoyed talking to Gary about Aour family history. It was a contest of who knew what. You will be greatly missed cousin Gary, see you by and by.
