Marvin Davis Gill

JUN 30, 1938 - JUL 27, 2012

C LARENDON MEMORIAL SERVICES- 11:00 am Tuesday, July 31, 2012 in the Robertson Funeral Directors Saints' Roost Chapel in Clarendon with Case Dugan, officiating. Cremation & Arrangements are by Robertson Funeral Directors of Clarendon. Viewing will be held Monday at the funeral home with Visitation from 6:00-8:00 pm in the Chapel. Marvin was born on June 30, 1938 in Grapeland, Texas to Elmer Roy and Ailene Gill. Marvin was a hard working man and spent his early years in the insurance business. While pursuing his love for helping people and building business, he continued to seek the fulfillment of other aspects in life, such as starting a family. Marvin met his loving wife, Suzy, on a blind date. After exchanging many heartfelt love letters during their courtship, they married August 30, 1957. Marvin and Suzy shared a wonderful life together filled with love and soon, children. Marvin enjoyed hunting, fishing, snow skiing, and travel. He loved visiting with his many friends he had made from all over the country. He was a true salesman with his contagious smile and bubbly laugh. He loved to tell stories of his many travels, both national and international, with his friends and make everyone laugh. He was a very generous man and a wonderful grand-father, or "Boppy," to many grandchildren and took the pleasure of teaching them his beloved game of golf. As a well respected rancher and business owner, Marvin became dear to the many friends he made in the Clarendon community and panhandle area. As one of Jehovah's Witnesses, Marvin was a man of deep faith and was devoted to sharing the Bible truth with others. He dedicated his life to Jehovah God on March 19, 1962. It was paramount in his life. Marvin passed away, with his family by his side, as a faithful servant of Jehovah on July 27, 2012. Marvin's enthusiasm for not only his faith, but for life itself was inspiring. Marvin is survived by his wife, Carolyn Sue Gill, one son Jeffrey Herbert Gill and wife Roberta, and two daughters; Jean Ann Hinson and husband Toby and Jennifer Gill Haney and husband Brad. As well as eight grandchildren:

I knew Marvin mainly through the eyes of Jean Ann and Toby, and in that way grew to love and respect him and also Suzy. My heart goes out to all of you today, including those I haven't known. This sad day comes on the anniversary of a great loss in my life, so long ago but still so painful. May the truth about Jehovah and his promises give you the strength you need in the coming days, weeks and years.
