Gunnar & Ashleigh~Your mom was truly a godly woman, and I know she is in the arms of her Savior right now. You and your family are in my prayers. I will never forget my time as a student at MJH when she taught there, and the wonderful opportunity I had to come back as a teacher and work with her. We had so much fun in Little Theater together, and I know she was an inspiration to many. May God give you peace and surround you with His love and healing grace, knowing one day you will meet again.

Deb's service was beautiful and truly captured her spirit and personality. She loved her children and grandchildren so much and was very proud of all of you. When I think of her I think of not only what a good woman she was, but also what a good artist and creative person she was. We loved the time and effort she put into the poems for us. She was an awesome cook always sharing her new recipes with all of us at JH. She will be missed by her friends too. We will continue to remember her in our prayers.

Deb was a very special lady and a teacher. She was always upbeat and encouraging. She was an asset to me all the time that we taught. One thing about her that I remember was how neat she was with her writing, work, and dress. I was remembering the blazers that she decorated with buttons that were so detailed and pretty. She always took up for her students and supported them in everything. She was a wonderful mother and friend. She left with many pleasant memories. I loved the poems that she wrote and recited for us at school.May the Lord bless you.Elaine Wilson

Gunnar and Ashleigh, You and your families are in our prayers. Memphis Middle School will miss Deb. I am glad I was able to work with her. One thing that we did was pray together before school. She loved to pray and talk with her Lord and Savior. Now, she is talking to Him face to face. I pray God's blessing on you and for his comfort to overshadow you.

Your mom was the most Godly person I knew and it was an honor to be her friend and share such wonderful times together through the years. I loved your mom very much. Her life was her family and the Lord. She had such a deep love for both. 2Tim 4:7&8 says; "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith, henceforth there is laid up for me a Crown of Righteousness which the Lord, the Righteous Judge, shall give me at that day" She will be missed by many!
