I'm very saddened by your loss. Juanita, Jean and Me along with others had lots of good times over the years at the Senior Citizens and other places. I was very privileged to have had her friendship and had the fun we all had together. May it comfort you to know that others will miss her terribly. Ann Bunyan

My deepest sympathies and prayers to the family. Mrs. Meador and my grandmother, Margaret Pettit were very good friends. She was always such a sweet lady. I missed visiting with her after she moved. I pray for peace for you all.
