Clyde was ever the friendly presence at the other end of the telephone. We discussed happenings here and in Clarendon our conversation interlaced with memories from Scouting. Clyde was my Scoutmaster in Tappahannock and rejoined our troop during a stopover in Clarendon when we went to Philmont. We last spoke about two weeks ago and it was my turn to call when I did so today, receiving the sad news. A nice man and part of my youth is now missing and I will be sad not to have our chats.
