Velma & James, I have so many wonderful childhood memories of your mother. As you know she and my Mother, Beverly Gilbert were very close friends. Velma, I have fond memories of spending many a Sunday afternoon after church with you listening to Brenda Lee as well as a summer or two with you and Frank and the kids. I always loved going to your house. I would love to talk to you sometime as it has been so long.. My e-mail address is tlechlak@comcast.net. Love and prayers to you and your family..Stephanie Gilbert-Lechlak

Polly was one of the sweetest and kindest people we ever knew. She was full of fun and would give you anything she had. She was a generous loving Christian woman. She will be missed on this earth but she certainly has a place in heaven.
