To Frances's Family,I was a neighbor of hers on Roosevelt Street for 15 years. I have great memories of the things we did together, baking, making jelly, arts and crafts, water skiing, and crocheting. I fondly remember how Glenn was so very gentle with my daughter as he pushed her on his skateboard. I baked her birthday cakes and when I made meatloaf always gave her a generous amount of it as her family did not like it, therefore she did not make it, but it was her favorite. She was a kind, hardworking Mother and friend. I did not see as much of her as I would have liked once she moved to Clarendon. I did try to stop at the Post Office and see her when I went to monthly telephone meetings in Memphis. The last time I saw her was at the funeral of one of our other good neighbors from that same street. I loved her very much. Please know that many other people will miss her dearly besides her family. It was a pleasure to have her in my life. Do to prior commitments I am unable to come to her funeral. Would loved to have met her brothers and sisters.Sincerely,Norma White

May the Stevens family find comfort in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) He has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) Take care,
