Judy was my aunt. Although I have not seen her for a long time, I do have fond memories of her when I was a child and young man. I moved to Amarillo in 1983 to attend Amarillo College. I lived in a rickety apartment above a garage. The winter of 1984 was harsh, and at one point that winter the pipes in my apartment froze solid. Judy lived in Amarillo then as well. Judy took me in to her home for a brief period, keeping me warm and fed as I was going to school. I remember my concern that my clothes were all dirty, and I had no clean clothes for school and work. She told me "well our pipes aren't frozen. Get in there and wash some clothes!" Thinking of that moment in time makes me smile.-Kevin-
