I've had several memories with Jennifer and Shane, I remember a long icy drive that Jennifer and I took to Nebraska to get my daughter in January. Had To stop and get a flat fixed in middle of no where vill . It was a fast trip and very long drive, but the laughs we shared on road made it go by fast. Jennifer was a great friend always there when ya needed her!

Her smile lit up a room. Looking at her today laid at rest brought tears to my eyes & seeing her pretty dimples made me smile she looked herself. She will be greatly missed seeing her today made it real, but at the same time still in disbelief

I have known Jennifer for many years. We laughed together and even cried together as we shared some of our memories and some of the tough times we had experienced. She never failed to greet me with a big hug, beautiful smile and so much joy. I will miss you so much Jenn, and will think of you often as I watch your daughters grow into the beautiful women. God Bless all of you.

I'm so very sorry for your loss. Jen will always hold a very special place in my heart. Every time I think about her all I see is her beautiful smile. She was such a loving caring thoughtful amazing woman. She loved everyone and more than anything she loved her husband Shane and her daughters, she loved like there was no tomorrow. She always told me God has truly blessed her with such beautiful daughters and a living caring supportive husband, that the love he gave her would truly last thru eternity. I'm really going to miss u my friend. You will always love in my heart. My prayers to your family for peace and comfort and strength to get thru this time only to rejoice that you are in the best place you can be. Fly high angel of ours rest in peace!!
