It is said that the first impression of yourself is what people remember you the most. Being one of the newer member of JoAnn's extended family I was fortunate to meet Kilby the first time while visiting Buddy & Linda. During our visit this young man walked up to me and without hesitation extended his hand and introduced himself. Kilby made an impression on me that first time when he called me "Sir" and had this huge smile on his face. Later we had a chance to talk and I could tell from our discussion he had a positive outlook to life. In retrospect even though I knew Kilby for a short period, he made a lasting impression on me and I could tell he was raised by some wonderful people.

Just met Kelby at the graduation party for Joshua Lorenzen last spring at PSU. He visited with us, especially Joshua's grandfather; he had an easy smile and had a genuine interest and respect for all the stories G'pa Dale had to tell that day. What a special young man! So sorry for his early passing but praying for His peace to ease your grief, memories to bring a smile to your face and celebration of the blessing he was while on this earth. The last time I saw Kelby was just after Thanksgiving at a store. He had the biggest smile on his face when he saw me. When I told Bill he was here, Bill went over to him and Kelby gave him the biggest hug. This is the type of person Kelby was. He made you feel so good no mater were he was at.

I am so sorry for your loss. Kelby touched my heart and made my life a better place. He was always so polite and often dropped by my office to say hi and ask me how things were going. He was loved by all on campus and will be missed terribly. I am a better person for having known him. Prayers of comfort for all of his family and those lucky enough to call him a friend. I am so sorry for your loss. When I was a substitute teacher there at Shamrock, Kelby was always a pleasure to be around. He was friendly and helpful, even to the sub-teachers, which was not always a common attribute among the students. I greatly appreciated his willingness to help out and his cheerful attitude. I am sure he affected others in his life in the same way, he will be greatly missed.
