Laron Dale Breeding

JUN 22, 1954 - APR 3, 2019

Laron Dale Breeding, 64, of Samnorwood died Wednesday, April 3, 2019 in Amarillo.

Graveside services will be Monday, April 8, 2019 at 10:00 AM in Dozier Cemetery, Dozier, TX, with Gary Oldham, officiating.

Arrangements are by Robertson Funeral Directors of Shamrock.

Visitation will be from 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM Sunday, April 7, 2019 at the funeral home.

Laron was born June 22, 1954 in Edmond, OK. He was adopted by W.R. "Buck" and Etta Breeding. Laron married Alicia Brewer on February 22, 2018 in Wellington. Laron was a lifelong resident of Samnorwood where he raised his two sons. He loved the cowboy life and raising cattle. He worked for Clifford Oldham Cattle Co. processing cattle; which was one of many of his passions. Another one of his passions were raising his two sons. He never missed one of their football games and spoke of this often.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his son, J. W. Breeding and a brother W. D. Breeding. Laron is survived by his wife; his son David Breeding and wife Amy of Tucson, AZ and a Stepson, Andrew Lopez of Samnorwood; stepdaughters; Brooke Johnson of Shamrock, Sharon Perez and husband David of Las Vegas, and Nicole Henckel of Samnorwood; a sister Karon Tate and husband Rudie of Wellington; granddaughter Shelby Breeding; nephews: Stan Tate and wife Lavon of McLean and Lynn Tate and wife Sondra of Amarillo.

Laron got upright as a baby and has been an upright, straight shooting arrow ever since. When he was a baby he scooted on the seat of his bottom instead of crawling, thus he got upright sooner than most of us. We thank the good Lord for sharing Laron with us, and know he has been called to a bigger job for the Lord. Don C. Amerson(1st cousin)

Alicia, the first time I met Laron I knew right then that his love for u was forever. His heart as big as Texas and never an unkind word spoken. I'm so very sorry for your loss sweetie. I pray for peace, comfort and strength for you and your family. Just know he's up there watching over you daily. Love you.
