Jerry Lee Ferril

JUN 20, 1953 - SEP 5, 2019

Jerry "Bubba" Lee Ferril

Born June 20th, 1953 to Marvin Lee and Wanda Geraldine Ferril. Through his career in aviation studies across his life, while living in many places throughout the Midwest (TX and Wichita, KS), he made numerous friends and honorary family members along the way. He and his faithful Maggie were well loved by all those who knew and met him. He passed peacefully at his home in Shamrock, TX on September 5th. He is survived by Maggie, 4 children, and 6 grandchildren. Services are pending

Jerry was a very funny guy and he sang the blues very well. I remember when we worked together he would sing a lot, I thought he had an awesome voice, I considered him a good friend. He is with Jesus now and home at last, Rest in peace Bubba. Your friends Leland Springman and Joyce Springman.

Jerry was always such a ray of sunshine with his sweet disposition and kind manner. I always enjoyed seeing him walk through the door of the bank when he had business to do. Sometimes there was no business. He would just come in to say hello and grab a handful of taffy for his pocket. I'm sure going to miss him. ❤️

Mourning the loss of one of the greats. My heart is broken that one of the funniest, most creative, unique and true Texas men has gone to be with the angels. Bubba, you were special to so many - the absolute best B-I-L and a wonderful uncle to our girl. You will be missed, but will live on in the great memories we made. RIP Jerry Ferril, keep them laughing in heaven like only you can. Prayers for God's peace and comfort for the family and those left behind. Love you Jamie Ferril, Kyra Moody - my heart is with you and Landon at this difficult time.
