Linda Kay, I'm so saddened to hear of Paul's passing. I always thought the two of you were "the" couple to look up to when I was in high school. Through all the travails of life, the two of you seemed to just keep getting even stronger. Paul will be missed. Connie Williams Stewart

I loved Paul Bell. He would come and visit with my dad when I was a kid and I always loved to hear them tell their funny stories. The Bells have always been cherished family friends to the Chamberlain family. Paul was one of a kind, an outside of the box thinker. Though he will be missed, I'm so glad he knew Jesus and that he got his wings. No more health issues to battle. Love you Linda Kay, Kay Dion and Tanya. I hope you guys find healing and peace.
