Oh, Joan...I didn't know you had passed. I am profoundly sorry I missed your funeral. I miss you... You were the only one that called me "Sister" besides my PawPaw James...I vividly remember isn't wasn't long after he had passed that I saw you around town and you, of course, you called me what you always called me "Sister" cause I don't think you actually knew my real name...lol...but you said hello to me and I just lost it. And it was for that reason that I would stop by your house and visit you whenever I was in town. Oh, Joan, you will be so missed! I love you, Angel, Rest In Peace (Kisses)

Sorry we weren't able to attend Aunt Joan's service. We had so many summers spending there in Clarendon with her and Aunt Yvonne growing up. Was such a fun time with all of the family. As we got older she always made us feel welcome and always had a smile. Sending love to you all Donna Phillips and family

Ykevia Henderson lit a candle in honor of Joan.

This just broke my heart! I loved caring for her when working at Memphis convalescence center! She knew exactly how to brighten your day! I'll never forget the many jokes that she told me and the many talks we had about God. Every time she got some goodies or pizza, she would offer me some. Even when I didn't work there I'd pop my head in to her room door and she'd smile and say "lovvee". She was truly a jewel in this world and will be greatly missed! 😭❤️
