Dwaine was truly one of the "Good Ones ". Always the same guy whether @ a baseball game, rodeo, or social event. Quick with a laugh and making sure you were on your toes @ all times. It was an honor to know a man of this caliber and to see the imprint he had on all his family. Wishing the family my best, Brent Ehlers

I lost this before I finished posting. I will remember Dwaine's ever present grin and infectious laugh! We were classmates 4-12 and our class was one big family. After we moved from Brice farm to Lakeview we were all at my house or the Floyd's most of the time. We even had a few dates! But it was like dating a brother 😊! The one incident I DO remember is our senior year I was dating Dwight and I walked up from behind and put my arms around him and said, "Let's dance!" A grinning DWAINNE turned around and said, "okay"!!! I could not believe after all those years I got them mixed up!! I have laughed about that forever. And he teased me forever. The only way most of us were sure if Dwaine, he had a small facial scar and their laughs!! Wonderful and loving memories. So sad to lose him, but what a legacy he has left in his family. As we say in Hawaii, " Aloha and a hui hou". Dearest friend!! 🌴🌸🌸😭❤️
