Ray touched so many lives. He was our leader at Gageby Church when I was growing up. He would take us to Cowboy Camp Meetings and in the summer arrange treasure hunts for us that took us all over the area. There was never a dull moment with him around. He always had that huge grin on his face and opened his arms to all of us as if we were his own. What wonderful memories. What a wonderful man.

We called him Soda Pop. He was our bus driver when I was little. He loved us and was always so kind. If I remember correctly, he was the one who would stop the bus on Fridays at the little general store in Briscoe (gone now) and let us get off the bus to buy a Coke and candy bar. So - if we had 15 cents, we could get a Coke for a dime and a candy bar for a nickel. But since those days, I have kept in touch with him when I would come back home to TX through Gageby Church. He was a dedicated Christian and loyal church member for years. I looked forward to his smile and interest in how my life was going. He was a true gem of a man. I am sad to know that he has left us here, but I know he is having a ball in Heaven - because that's the kind of guy he was. I will be praying for all of his family and friends during this difficult time as you grieve. I will grieve with you from afar. Love to you all.

Ray was such a sweet and caring person. Always made people laugh. Very thoughtful and thinking of others. Never will forget all the Branson bus trips we all took. So much fun. Still think of them often. Praying the family will find peace and comfort. God gained another angel.

Bud and I met Ray Hudson when we were attending church in Mobeetie with his daughter Cheryl. Cheryl and I quickly became such great friends that I came to call her my sister. She introduced us to her family and from that moment on Ray Hudson became my Daddy Ray Ray and Glenda became my Momma G. Daddy Ray Ray always took time out to call and see how we were doing and after my Daddy had passed took over calling me on my birthday and sang to me! He always treated Bud and I like family and on 5th Sunday sings he instigated the early sneaking of the coconut pie and Bud naturally followed along with other men who caught onto what he was doing. Daddy Ray Ray will truly be missed and I am praying for all the Hudson's and I want to thank you for sharing him with us! ❤️
