Linda was born December 9, 1947 in Weslaco, TX, to her parents JC & Ruby Hill. She passed away October 31, 2021 in her home. Linda married Lloyd Spoon on June 12, 1999. They lived in Claude, TX putting them close to family.

Survivors include her Husband of 22 years, Lloyd Spoon of Claude. Daughter: Lori Baggett of Claude. Grandson: Brady Baggett and wife Jacy Baggett of Claude Granddaughter: Brooklyn Morgan and husband Tre Morgan of Claude. Also a great grandson: Parker Lewis. She was preceded in death by her parents, Son: Todd Roberson, Grandson: Adam Nagle and Brother: Jerry Hill.

Linda served most of her time helping others feel beautiful as a cosmetologist for 50+ years. She touched so many lives by doing what she loved. Those who knew her would best describe her as being unapologetically herself. Which is a rare gift that they all cherish about her. When she loved you she loved you fiercely and with her entire heart. Linda loved God and prayed for those she loved often. One of the most important things she left her family was her knowledge of life. She taught them to let go of small things that seem big in the moment, because really they aren't big at all. She loved get togethers and family functions. You could see in her eyes how much she loved her family. What a blessing she was.

Thank you for my life, and my beautiful children. I lift Lloyd, his family, Lori, Brady and his family, Brooklyn and Tre up to you. Father I ask you open their hearts so that they may receive your blessings. Father, place your total armor around them and protect them from any evil..."
