I didn't know Tryston well. I met him over the summer while me and my kids were shooting the basketball at the park. We would always let him join in... During that time Tryston and my daughter Skye became fast friends. They would hang out most afternoons during the summer, and after school hanging out and playing videogames. Skye cherished her friendship with Tryston. I'm so thankful my daughter had a friend like him. Though it was short, it was special and one that she won't forget. May you rest in peace Tryston. ❤️
