I am sorry that I did not know about Lynda's passing until today or I would have said something sooner. Lynda was always such a pleasant, caring person. I always enjoyed our interactions at WT and she never failed to check in and say hello. I know she will be greatly missed by her family and friends. I had no idea she had worked for the newspaper, but I'm not surprised that she had things to say that people enjoyed reading.

Don't know how to begin. Lynda was a special person, friend and classmate. She was the glue that kept the Class of '68 going. She probably got to Heaven and told the Lord well I'm here now so lets get organized, got a lot of work to do. Thanks for being a friend to me and my family. Tom Thornton and Family

Lynda was the best friend a person could ever want to have in the world. I was lucky not only to have this sweet lady as a friend and a classmate but also as my cousin. I think the song by Alabama describes the best she was an " Angel Among Us". She will be missed by all that have known her.

Lynda had the best smile and laugh...geniune and contagious! She was the definition of a servant and had a great time doing it--from church work to playing a "crying mourner" dressed in all black at my mom's 50th birthday party! Growing up with Tammy and Renea, she will forever be one of my "other mothers." Thank you, Lynda, for being a great friend to my family for so many years. Love to the Robinson Family.

To each of you precious friends I send my love and my heartfelt sympathy and prayers. As for a memory, can't just do one. There are so many... church activities, walks around town to solve all problems of our worlds, and only a few hours watching basketball and football, trip to NFR where we rode in our first lemo....Lynda was so good at turning a conversation around from herself to being all about other person. I would go by church to check on her only to get home to realize she never answered about herself but she knew all about my problems. Our God called a super sweet lady this time.. Words are so inadequate this morning. My friend Lynda you are #1 today!!Linda #2 Thompson
