I don't have a favorite memory..what I have is multiple. The way she talked about and believed in God..her strength, the multitude of times she would walk by and kiss the top Bills head the love that showed in her eyes the way she looked at and spoke of her kiddos, grandchildren, and great grand kids..her ❤️ that was so big and full of love. She helped me alot these last few years listening to and guiding me with her wisdom. She was a sister..not a sister in law..we would spend hours on the phone. She always apologize for having to go lay down cause she wasn't feeling good. I guess the fondest was saluting the onions and celery..not sauting..love and miss u Betty my sister..dance in heaven for me
