The family will then go to the Vashti Community Center, and we invite all our friends & loved ones to join us there.

In grade school Jimmy attended several different places, including Fort Stockton and McCamey, Texas, as well as rural schools such as Rocky Point near Crafton, Texas, and Bugscuffle School, only a few miles from his grandparents' Home Place near Newport, Texas. He stated that he was one of the last students to graduate eighth grade at Bugscuffle School before it closed. He began ninth grade at Bowie High School, but quit to break horses and do ranch work in the area. He was drafted into the Army in 1951. After boot camp at Fort Lee, Virginia, he was in the 45th Infantry, Field Artillery Battalion, during the Korean War. He served fourteen consecutive months in the battlefields, until his honorable discharge in 1953. He was very, very proud to have served his country.

Jimmy married Joe Ann McLane at Woodson, Texas on June 15th, 1957. During his lifetime he worked as an auto mechanic, ranch hand, ranch foreman, custom farmer, painter, and truck driver. His greatest love, besides his Lord and his family, was ranch work; and anyone who knew him well regarded him as a cowboy. He also loved classic country and bluegrass music, and he was willing to travel many miles to hear his favorite bands.
