Jaime was two years older than I. When he was 5 about to turn six he told me he was leaving home. I was 3, and loving and looking up to my brother, I ran away with him. In my reasoning, I was going with him to "take care of him and watch over him". We were gone for a few hours and when we saw our mom cry, we couldn't stand to see mom hurting. She couldn't see us, but we saw her so we came out of the tall weeds where we were hiding. We went home with our parents never to run away again. I treasure the love we shared as children. Rest in Peace brother.Love,Em
