Shirley loved by brother and a soul mate to him; two halves of a whole. Shirley is a warrior; her fight to live was such a testimony to go after what you want and not allow anyone to stand in your way. I am honored to call her friend and sister. She was so fun! So many good memories. She was a great story teller and I thought she would be a great author. She had talent; sewing, cooking, crafts, computers. There was nothing she could not do. I bought a book on crocheting and she in no time was making gifts...i never got a chain made. She was so smart. She loved Jesus, Michael, family, babies, Dr. Pepper and a good romance.
