Peggy was the sweetest lady. When my kids were little, in the early 80's, Peggy lived with us and we had more fun, we went to the lake and spent weekends or we just stayed home and had fun with my kids. My kids loved Peggy, she was like an aunt they never had, her patience with them was incredible. I have talked to her a couple times over the years and it was just like we had seen each other recently. Peggy will be missed. Love and prayers to her family.
