Jack was an awesome man and was always encouraging others. It was a privilege to be his Pastor for four years he was always encouraging and willing to try new things even when he didn't have all the answer of how. He was dedicated to his family, his work, his community, his country, but most of all to his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Freddie Jo, Melody, Phillip praying for you'll and the whole family as you'll walk through the days, weeks, and months to come.

My condolences to Freddie Jo and family. I first met Jack and Freddie Jo in 2002 at the Methodist Church. Jack told me the history of the Methodist Church in Clarendon. After I retired from banking and was working at the Saints Roost Museum Jack told me more stories. He explained to me about the McClellan saddle he donated. He loved talking JA Ranch history. He shared with me stories of being in Korea. Thanks for the memories. Rest in peace, Jack, taps has sounded and God is nigh.
