Harry Donnis "Bos" Sofge

JUL 6, 1935 - SEP 24, 2022

Harry Donnis "Bos" Sofge of Childress, TX passed from this life Saturday, September 24, 2022 in Childress Hospital.

Graveside services will be Thursday, September 29th, 2022, 2:00 PM in Locker Cemetery in Locker, San Saba County, Texas with Tim Crosby, officiating.

Arrangements are by Robertson Funeral Directors of Memphis.

"Bos" was born in Brownwood, TX on July 6, 1935, to T.M. and Opal (Cochran) Sofge. Bos grew up on a farm in San Saba County near the community of Locker. He had two older brothers Glenn and Trelve, and older sister Lou Era. Bos also had a younger sister, Utonia, and the two of them covered a lot of ground in a day. She became ill leaving him to cherish her memory. Which he did and spoke of the times they were into mischief. He grew up working hard on the family farm. He graduated from San Saba High School in 1954.

He left the farm to pursue other job interests in Brownwood. He met Corinne Turner, they married and had three children. Bos had a good career in construction and as a heavy equipment operator. After working in Granbury many years, when the lake was finished and the loop around the town completed, he moved to Richland Springs. He lived there for many years, working in the area. He became a licensed spray applicator. A job he loved.

He felt the need to move again. The Childress and Panhandle area peaked his interest. He met Rose Contreras and they were married in 2005. They were together until his death.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brothers; and sisters.

Bos is survived by his three children: daughter, Carolyn Hogan and husband, Justin, of Abilene; son, Timothy of Dallas; and daughter, Lea Ann Sofge-Economu and husband, Paul, of San Diego,
