Mary was born October 6, 1930 in Maryneal, Nolan County, Texas to Otho Brice and Mary Inez Russell Hartgraves. She grew up in Maryneal and attended Highland school until 1948. The family then moved to Divide where she graduated in 1948. Mary attended McMurry College, graduating in 1951 with a BS degree. JM and Mary had two children, John M (Johnny) Morgan III and Jayne Ann. Mary lived in the Samnorwood area until 1978 when they moved to Shamrock. She then moved to Wellington in 2007. Mary was active in the Methodist Church, United Daughters of Confederacy and Daughters of American Revalution and loved geneology, which she had many notebooks of family history.

Mary played basketball and coached-which coaching never left her. She loved the San Antonio Spurs and you didn't bother her when they were playing.

Mary was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, John M. Morgan Jr. in 2005 and a son, John M (Johnny) Morgan III in 2010.

She is survived by a daughter, Jayne, and husband, Byron; 2 grandsons, Beau Bell andwife, Jeanna. and Jackie Bell and wife, Kasey; a granddaughter, Jean Traughber; great grandsons, Kyler Bell,

There are so many memories I have of Mary as a school teacher, class sponsor, as leader and volunteer with our MYF youth group, and as family I worked for and lived with one summer. One of the most vivid was the summer she took some of us to a summer camp southwest of Abilene called Camp Batman. She delivered us at the campsite on Monday afternoon told us she would see us on Friday afternoon. She went to spend the week with her mother who lived a little ways from the camp at Maryneal. I thought she had dropped us off at the end of the earth, it was hot and humid and not very good scenic. I wondered a couple times if she was going to come back and get us. There many other memories and things Mary did that encouraged me in my life.
