I knew Sue only two years; we ate our meals at the same table at Brookdale. I grew very fond of her during that time. She wasn't a big talker usually but a great companion during meal times. She had a beautiful smile, participated in many actives the first year or so I was there. So many knew her and asked about her when it became known she wasn't at her usual table. I miss her very much and still find myself looking down the hall she'd travel from her apartment to the elevator to go downstairs. I'm so grateful to Cindy for taking care of her and will remember Sue and think fondly of her for a very long time.
