Gary let me drive his welding truck up and down main street while I had my fingers in a cast. He also let me fishtail the Roadrunner on the sandy dirt roads between here and the cemetery in Erick. Grandma treated him as if he were one of the Brewer kids anyway, so yes, I thought of him as my older brother I could claim. Definitely great memories and he'll be missed!

Oldest memory is with him and my sister Tammy rocking in the old big rocking chair Grandma Brewer had. She babysat Gary while Osa worked at the restaurant. Then more recently in Shamrock with us 3 Brewer girls and 2 granddaughters went to the movies at the Texas Theatre to see one of the Minion movies. You're like a brother we never had.
