She was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Placido and Genoveva Casas; her paternal grandparents, Andres and Dolores Garza; her brother, Gabriel Garza, Jr.; and her beloved dogs, Bruno, Lala, Chuey, and Scrappy.

My favorite memory of cousin Abby was always with her cousin Hoey. He loved her so much, and we could go by anytime day or night for a visit. She was always there. A funny story of Abby was about her and a loaf of bread....if you know you know. Her smile was beautiful, and she was such a fun person to be around! RIP beautiful

One of my favorite memories that I have with my mom is the times she always had a open heart for anybody she took care of many people like they were her own gave them support or fed them as if they were her own kids.she always taught us to be kind and never expect anything in return to do it out the kindness of your heart.most of all she taught us to cherish every moment of life with family cause things can change fast and I'm glad I got to do so many things with my mother to help me through this hard time.

I love when we would stand or sit outside and just look out into the street seen neighbors or people drive by and we would make fake scenes on what they were doing, the way she always made a joke about anything no matter the situation and most of all her contagious laugh and smile I'll forever be grateful for our memories ,I love you forever Abby I promise to take care of mill, you weren't just my mother in law you were my mom and one of my best friends words can't explain how much you'll be missed ❤️☐
