Delphia was born August 2nd, 1945 in Redlands, California to Ada and CL Anderson. Delphia grew up in Memphis, Texas. She was a very hard worker where sometimes she worked 3 jobs at one time in efforts to make sure her family was taken care of. Delphia enjoyed going to her son's football and basketball games and never missed one. In 1988, she lost her only daughter, Cyndee Wilson, to cancer. As a fighter, she picked herself up and never looked back. She started a new career with the Texas Department of Criminal Justice in Childress, Texas and soon after transferred to Bonham, Texas. She retired in 2009. Her family was her life which she loved dearly. Most people knew her as, Momma Del.

Delphia was preceded in death by her parents Ada and CL Anderson, husband Mack Mackay, her brothers Bob and Kirk Anderson and daughter, Cyndee Wilson.

She is survived by her son, Kent Jones of Gainesville, Texas and a brother Jerry Anderson of Norman, Oklahoma.

Delphia will forever be remembered as a hard worker and a loving mother. She was a best friend to her loving son, Kent.

“ My Dear Momma Del. It was an honor to be with you these past months. I'd come check on you throughout the day and night, helping with whatever you needed. That truly was my pleasure and calling. You would hear me open the front door and say, " Well come on in sugars"! How cute is that! You are a true example of a warrior. I know our Dear Lord has big plans for your sweet and caring heart. Kent and I will continue to be sweet, as you always told us to be. Rest in peace Momma Del and you are forever in my heart. Lorie

Mom,

I thank you for all the great times we had together. You were my best friend and you never turned your back on me not once. I remember when Cyndee and I and you would set out on the grass in Germany and listen to America top 40 boy we had so much fun. I want to thank you for all your support and strength you gave me when I didn't think I had any left but you did. I love you mom and already missing you... You rest and we will meet again soon....love your bestfriend and son...Kent
