“ Becky, your sweet Mom was my 8th grade "Reading" teacher. I'll never forget those SRA reading plans and the encouraging presence that she had. She was the special kind of person you hope will teach your own children. And your dad was special too. He used to take me on to school in his red pickup when my own mother had to be at work early every day at Farmers and Merchants State Bank. Looking back now, I think it probably made him smile, thinking of taking his own little Becky girl to school. These are just a few of the cherished memories of your folks, which so many of us have that are now scattered across TX and beyond. You come from good people, Becky. We will miss them. Peace and comfort to you and your family, until you meet again.

“ Becky, I am so sorry to hear this. She was a special lady, and you are too! I hope when all this virus is over, I can come visit you. I want you to remember you still have lots of family! Please reach out if you need something! Lubbock is just a hop away!

It gives me peace to know that Mary is in her eternal heavenly mansion now!

Love you. Amy

“ So sorry to hear this, Becky! I loved your mom and being in her class. I still have Roberts’ Dollars in my scrapbook. I mean, where else do you sing “My Country Tis of Thee” in 8th grade? So thankful for her and her influence.

“ Mrs. Robert’s was my teacher. I give her full credit for my vocabulary skills. She made learning fun. I loved her and her class. At 59 years old I still speak of her. She was tops!!!

Thank you Mrs. Roberts.

“ In the most darkest of my life she was a light to me. She kept me involved in music and that saved my life. I could never repay this wonderful woman for all the time and money she invested in my life. But more than anything she was the epitome of Christianity and what an example of Christ Like lifestyle that so changed my life. The hole in my heart will take a long time to heal over this sweet lady. There is not a day that goes by I don't think of Br. R.L. also. Two people that made a difference! Once in a lifetime relationship!
