“ Hey McCravey.... someone from our past reached out to me a few days ago and let me know you were gone. I found this site only because I could not stop thinking of how fast the years have gone by and how many different directions we have all been blown. Most of us are still here, but of course sadly some of us are not. The memories that help us smile (and laugh) stay after we're gone and for that I wanted to write here and thank you. Too many stories of you guys sneaking over to Wellington to see me to get into on here, but my dad always used to say, “the good looking girls in the sport's car are here” and of course I always knew immediately who he was talking about. Those mesmerizing eyes and blond hair!!! Take care up there McCravey, I'll catch you on the flip side girl!

“ Stephanie, you showed kindness towards me when I was but a stranger to you. It didn't matter how much time had passed since we had seen each other, you repeatedly & eagerly, greeted James & myself with a warm smile and a hug EVERY SINGLE TIME. We shared many late-night laughs, funny stories, opinions, ideas, fears, dreams etc. & those memories will not ever be forgotten. Steph, you my friend, are memorable. Walk those streets of gold and know undoubtedly that you are loved & fiercely missed. SENDING MUCHO PRAYERS TO YOU & YOUR FAMILY. — ,

“ It didn't matter if we were freezing our butts off camping in New Mexico, picking apricots in the back yard, or roasting at the ranch rockhounding, you were always up for the adventure. We could spend hours talking and never run out of things to say. You were a free spirit with a kind heart, and your friendship will be truly missed! Rest easy my sweet friend.

“ I am one of Riley's best friend of many years. While being Riley's best friend I have been able to be blessed with her moms amazing soul and pure heart. We use to go on midnight journeys to Walmart to get snacks for our slumber parties. I have been able to see them continually grow over the years. She is an amazing mom to her kids and even to me. She was so full of love towards her family and all the dogs and animals she saved constantly. It was a blessing to be able to have known her for so long but even it is hard to say she is now at peace and is healthy. She is missed by many and will be forever in our hearts. I love this entire family for they have watched me grow into who I am and who have helped me see things differently. Prayers for this family.

“ We (You, me, Melissa Jeffries, Blake and Kyle Burluson, DeEdra Evans, Audrey Lemons) had a blast on the old fire escape slides at the Jr High building. We played basketball, skated, rode bikes and hung out at the tennis courts across the street from my mom and dad's house. We ate jaw breakers and drank orchids and sweet cherry limes from the Freeze. We gave Mrs. Cabler and Estelle all kinds of hell but they still loved us. Summers were spent life guarding, getting a dark tan and perfecting our dives off of the high diving board at the city pool. Winters were spent dancing and hanging out at the skating rink.
Thanks for the fabulous teenage years and all of the memories back on the block in good ole Memphis, Texas.
